To Lou, my best friend,

I sure hope you like Lakewood next year, not because I don't want you back at Josephs, but because I want you to be happy. We sure had alot of fun during the last nine year together, with Oscar, Deet, Deet, 735, Karen and Mary, 600, 300 and all our codes, I could probably go on forever. We laughed alot, about everything. It's not like we were never going to see each again, you & I will stay in touch OK? You can tell me all about Lakewood next year, besides you'll be going to school withDROP and I won't. You're lucky! Eddie K, Blane Y, David D... I don't care for them but I know you do. Have fun, 109 10. I sure hope you have a really nice Summer. I'll be seeing you. Bye.

Love

Always

On the planet Miranda peace reigned supreme. Harmonious happiness existed among its people. King Titania governed this world with gentleness and kindness. No other methods were necessary then. His son, Prince Lochar, and daughter, Princess Ariel played happily with moon dust and lunar blocks in their nursery.

The ancient Log of History, including "The Guide to Perfect Living," was kept in its well guarded sepulcher in the main intelligence area at the heart of the globular cluster of the peaceful planet. This Log was essential to the successful existence of Miranda. Without it, chaos and even possible destruction of the entire planet were inevitable.

The Cosmic Scholar Force, known as the CSF, were specially trained at the Joseph Jet Academy for the occupation of guarding the ancient, but essential Logs.

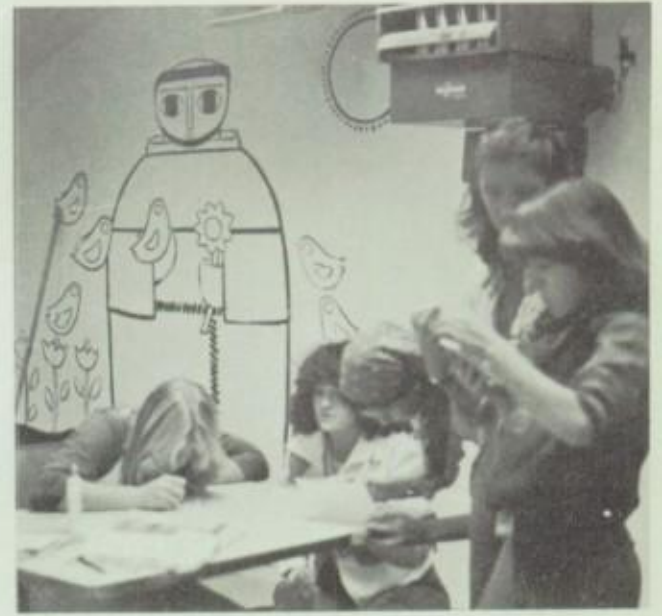

The members of the Cosmic Scholar Force worked side by side with the King's Special Stellar Sky Fleet (soon to be graduated) to ensure the safety of the great planet of Miranda. One lunar day, there was an uprising against the throne. Panic consumed the Mirandans as Lord Dolfus, one of the most influential members of the Cosmic Cabinet (a council of leaders), led the revolt as well as committed many unspeakable crimes. Prince Lochar, barely three years old at the time, was secretly whisked away into hiding by one of the King's faithful Chamberlains because it was feared that the heir to the throne might be killed.

Exploration in a rapidly changing world and universe is the initial factor in discovering one's destiny. Space, the last unexplored frontier, is slowly being conquered and year after year man inches further into the mysterious unknown. A first step toward conquering the infinite mysteries is self-understanding and identification. Education plays an important role in the growth process of those who will be a part of future explorations. This need to push forward and discover has inspired the 1977-78 Jongleur staff to invent a fantasy concerning the future, an unknown area.

Dolfus was finally suppressed and apprehended, but not before he had succeeded in killing King Titania.

He was taken before the Cosmic Cabinet (a group of student leaders) and, as execution was thought too violent a method of punishment, Dolfus was forever banned from the galaxy.

Once, in a galaxy far away from our own, the planet Nestar was discovered by the traitor Dolfus bent on seeking revenge.

The Nestonians were a sheltered

He proceeded to train the multitudes as a fierce fighting force. The theme of the 1977 Homecoming game and dance was Fantasia. It is every school-girl's fantasy dream to be crowned Homecoming queen, but for Roberta Noble this school-girl dream came true. Starry-eyed and radiant Roberta, showing the regal grace of a true queen, was crowned the 1977 Homecoming queen during the game's half-time. Her royal court consisted of the lovely Junior princesses, Jamie Koblensky and Donna Evans; and the stunning Senior princesses, Donna Lanting and Katie Perry. Last year's reigning Homecoming queen, Nancy Kelly, returned to turn over her title and crown to new Queen Roberta. The festivities were topped off by the miraculous, last minute touchdown by Bosco, defeating Notre Dame by the close score of 29-27.

The Homecoming festivities began with the carnation sale — giving carnations to special friends, the assembly, the spectacular football game, and ending with the dance.

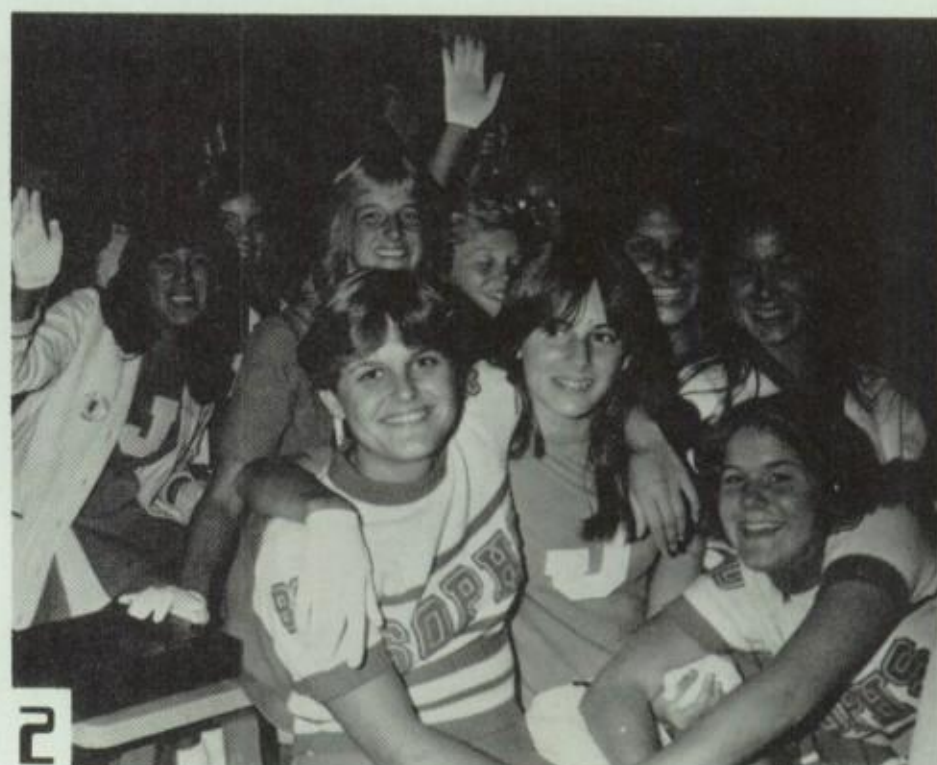

Lord Dolfus nervously paced the bridge of the mother ship of his Black Fleet awaiting the return of his planetary probes. Upon their arrival, he was relieved to discover the layout for the secret sepulcher had remained the same as before he had been banished. He then gave the order to his armies to carry out his so long awaited vengeful plan. The army of multitudes had no choice but to obey him. Their minds were not their own. They belonged to Dolfus

"It is quite true, boy," his uncle replied gravely. "You are the only one who can save the planet from its inevitable destruction." Slowly the truth sank in. Prince Lochar realized that he had to save the Logs and his sister. It was his duty!

The next afternoon, Prince Lochar went to the Special Stellar Sky Fleet Base to seek out his best friend Elois, an official in the fleet. After telling him of his story, Lochar persuaded Elois to accompany him on his quest. Elois disobeyed direct orders from his superiors and swore allegiance to Prince Lochar.

Prince Lochar and Elois hurried to an awaiting space ship. They set course and blasted away from the planet's pull. Upon reaching open space, the ship slowed down and the prince looked out over the vast expanse of black velvet with its shimmering lights, some blaring down brightly with blinding force, others faintly flickering in the distance.

"How are we ever going to find my sister or the Logs in all 'this'," Lochar asked gesturing to the emptiness. Although the Prince had many experiences with space travel, the immense amount of openness still left him with a sense of awe.

In the meantime Prince Lochar and Elois maneuvered the space skimmer to the dark side of the planet which was completely void of all habitation, all the time hoping that this wasteland was not monitored by Dolfus' scanners. - 1 Here we've caught Mrs. Pope during her great performance in the outstanding faculty skit.
- 2 While talking to Sr. Karen, Mrs. Rossi stops a second to give us one of her dazzling smiles.
- 3 Sr. Lucille gladly helps the typing class with their work during Mrs. Bruce's absence.
- 4 Not many teachers dress up on Halloween but at Joseph's we find many, like Miss Mendoza.
- 5 Mrs. Duvall takes a moment out of her very busy schedule to pose for a picture.
- 6 It's not uncommon to find the smiling face of Mrs. Burian anytime of the day.

1 Look what kind of creatures there are on St. Joseph's Jet Academy. No, this ape is not a stranger on campus but the very familiar new media co-ordinator, Mr. Neff.

2 Miss Keiser enjoys a friendly game of dominoes with some students. They were not alone with their game for many of the students challenged some of the faculty to other games.

3 It is obvious that everyone enjoys a good conversation once in a while and it seems as though Mrs. Rossi is very involved with her conversation on the telephone.

4 Is St. Joseph High School being invaded by strangers, or just the new styles? Actually these are just a couple of friendly faculty, Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Mahakian.

- 1 SJ's faculty really are human, including Mrs. Petrich.
- 2 Mrs. Peterson has made a landing at the Jet Academy long enough to celebrate Halloween with earthlings.
- 3 Only Mrs. Mahakian knows what mysterious phenomena we will encounter deep in the faculty room.
- 4 It's hard to decide which of SJHS's faculty members should get the best dressed award.
- 5 This galaxy's brightest stars shine daily at SJHS.

- 1 In her own private sanctum (room 202), Sister Nancy spends her many hours of free time discussing the marvelous work of the yearbook staff with Albert, her darkroom companion.
- 2 Could it be that Mrs. Rowles is planning to graduate early? Is Mrs. Rossi planning to graduate late? How come it took them so long to become seniors? Did they flunk? The answer to these questions is, no. They are just showing their great school spirit during the Halloween activities at St. Joseph's.
- 3 Mrs. Duvall, Mrs. Hernandez, and Mr. Neff have taken a few minutes out to relax in the privacy of the faculty room.
- 4 Miss Mendoza displays her talent during an assembly.
- 5 Mrs. Warren works at keeping the Media Center quiet, clean.

"How can I possibly believe that?" asked the Princess. Her shining blonde hair was in complete disarray. Her eyes flashed with anger.

"I AM LOCHAR, YOUR BROTHER," answered the Prince. "I have come in pursuit of you and the Logs. As you can see, I have found the first half of my quest."

The Princess' eyes widened in disbelief. "You were thought dead," she said.

1 Peggy Burke fights offensively against her enemy, while Michelle Hendrickson runs to her aid.

2 Space travelers prefer Sophomore Candy Apples.

3 Tina Campo is reaching out to explore new worlds.

4 Nancy Brazzano prepares a project for her design class.

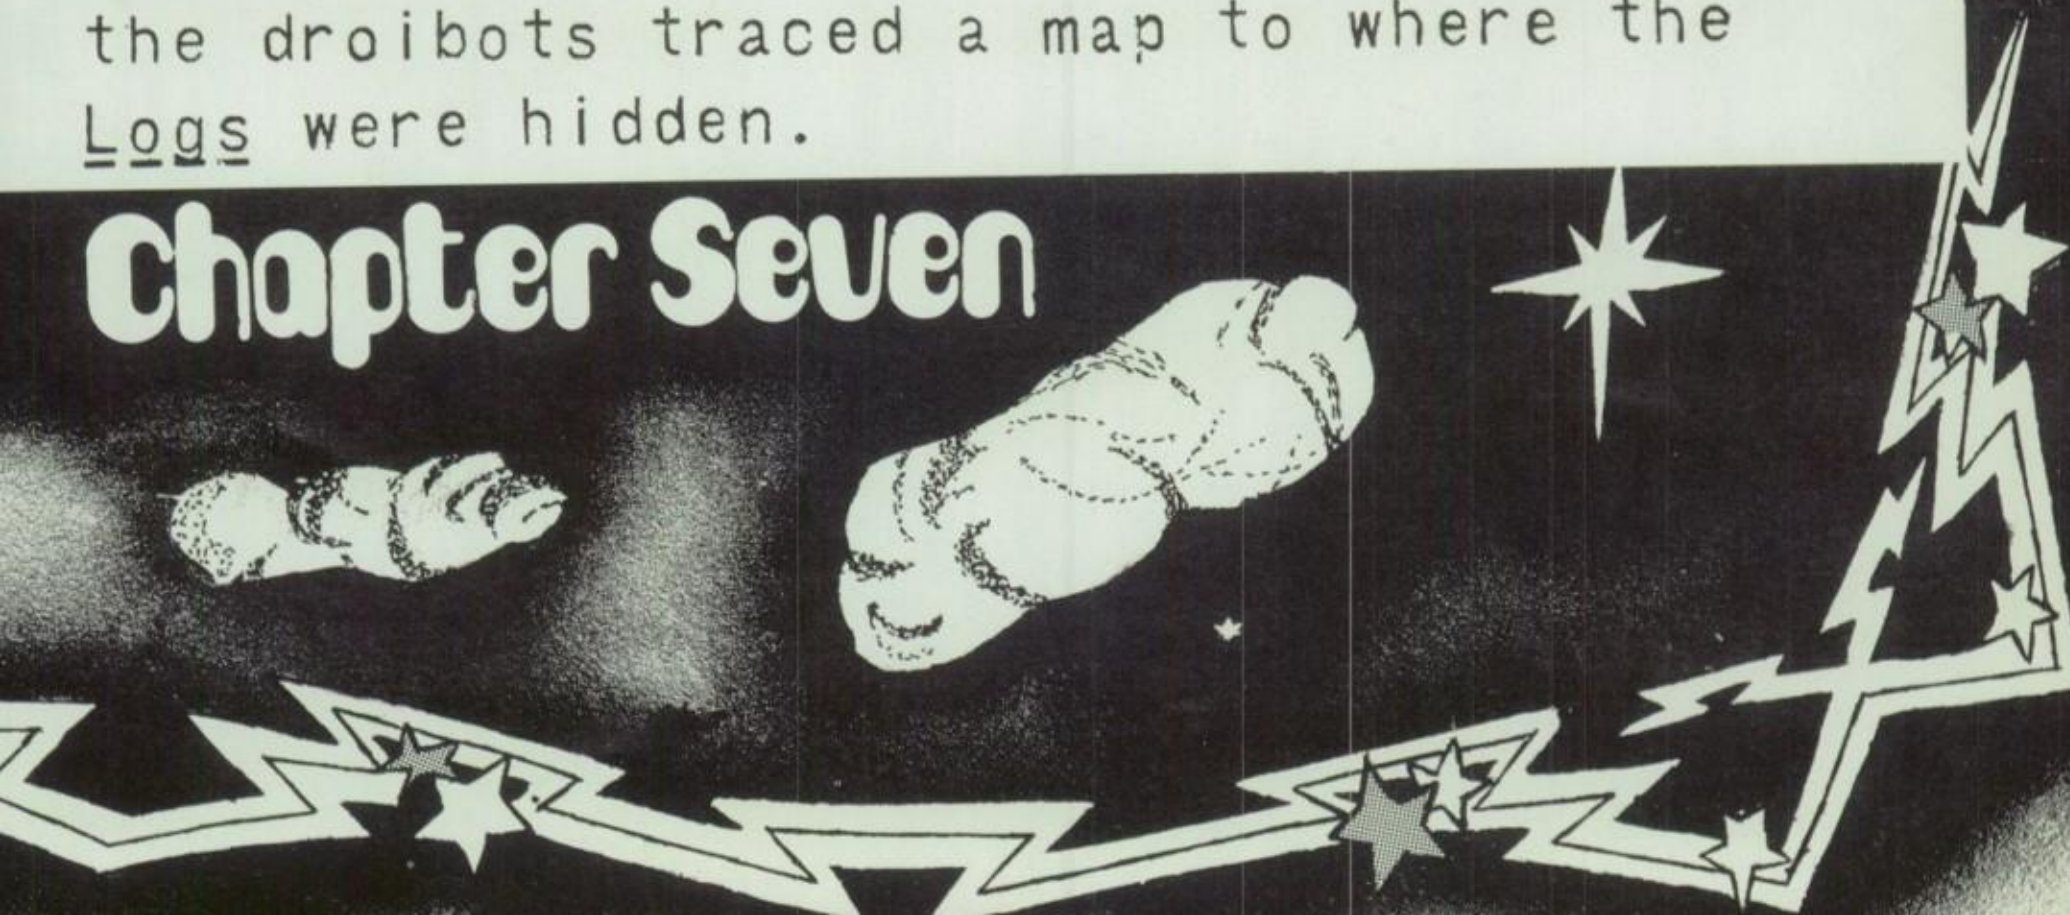

Prince Lochar took this opportunity to briefly describe his past. While he was speaking, Ariel observed him carefully, noting the color of his complexion, hair and eyes matched her own perfectly.

"Come," said the Prince. "We must make haste." Side by side the royalty of Miranda sneaked through the city toward the point of rendezvous with Elois.

In the meantime, Elois had told the droibots to scan the city in order to find out where the Logs were being kept. Obeying, faithful and foolproof as ever, the droibots traced a map to where the Logs were hidden.

Chapter Seven

- 1 As a freshman, Eileen's enthusiasm is twice as zany as her other friends.
- 2 Benigna and Annette are Juniors who are cooler than some & crazier than others.
- 3 Annette Breslin and Dora Marie Lopez are just two 60's sophomores.
- 4 Terri Larsen catches the eyes of Sherry and Charlotte as she tries to look macho for the camera.
- 5 The 60's day poster gang hang out in the patio.
- 6 Annette talks casually to her hippie friends.

- 3 A gang of UC officers and their dedicated leader, Mrs. Rossi, hang out in the Upperclass office.
- 4 The groovy hippie's "Hang-out" during Upperclass Week was the patio. The spacey costumes and the student's enthusiasm, made UC week.
- 5 Laura Aiello models her 60's costume to the yearbook photographer who jumped at the chance to capture Laura's creativity!

Although he was accosted a few times by some guards, Elois successfully fought them off thanks to his superior skills of self defense.

Upon reaching a small metal portal, the droibots opened it with ease. Elois went through it and could not believe what he saw before his very eyes: An absolutely huge computer which obviously controlled the entire planet. In one corner of the room, however, he spied the Logs of Miranda well guarded by a laser force-field which surrounded it.

Elois tried to disconnect the force field, but could not. Each minute he worked in constant fear of discovery. Finally, he once again employed the droi-bots. He connected them to the main computer and directed them to find out how to disconnect the forcefield. In a matter of seconds the forcefield was off and Elois snatched up the Logs.

73 Check operations

As soon as the Logs were taken from their spot, a general alarm was sounded. Thinking fast, Elois then removed the entire memory bank from the computer. He then ran for his life in search of his companion and Ariel.

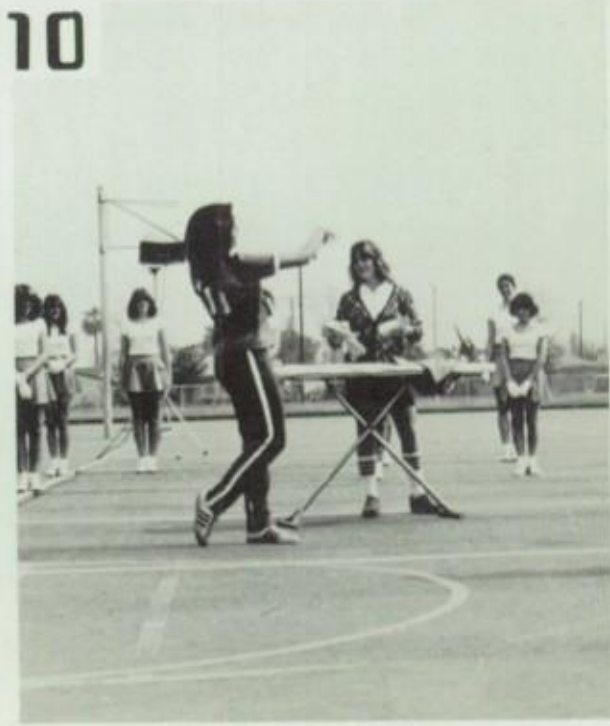

Luckily the group literally ran into each other at a spot where two paths met.

There was a brief introduction of Ariel to Elois and then they were off again. The guards opened fire upon them and followed in close pursuit.

It was decided among our heroes to try to steal a space craft from the Black Fleet. They hurriedly made their way to the area where the crafts were stored. Luckily, they had managed to ditch their pursuers for a short time. They found a space craft, boarded it and started up its engines. Elois crossed his fingers as he pushed a button he hoped would open the glass bubble to allow them to escape.

Life is always a journey into the unconquered, — always encountering the mysteries of the unknown. 1977-78 has been a year of growing and experiencing. We have all grown together as one in unity, and have succeeded in a long-awaited conquest — our multi-purpose building. But we all have different missions we must follow and attain. In learning and getting involved we establish our identities. Now we must venture into the future and explore the unknown. As we approach our destination, we must strive to conquer and overcome the ULTIMATE CONQUEST! — The Future.

The three heaved a sigh of relief as the dome gently slid back and the ship sped through the opening.

Congratulating themselves on the easy escape, they were suddenly alerted as Lochar noticed the scanner. Dolfus himself was following them! Elois instinctively increased the speed, but as he did so, something strange happened. The craft Dolfus was driving disappeared. It was gone without a trace.

"What happened to him?" exclaimed Ariel.

"I don't know," answered her brother. "But I have a strange feeling we have not seen the last of Dolfus."

To share moments of tears as well as laughter, to work hard, yet not be afraid to stop and dream; receiving the love of others, never hesitating to give your own . . . the joy of being yourself and still being a part of someone else . . . these are the gifts of love, the gifts of being a family.

THIS GIRL AND I met in February of 1976 . . . we were at a dance wanting to have a good time . . . we started to go out and become closer friends . . . we would spend time together showing each other how we cared . . . we went to school dances together instead of alone . . . We went to places that we had never gone before . . . then the proms came along and they were great . . . They were nights that we both won't forget . . . Summer came along and that meant work for me . . . but still we had our weekends, just her and me . . . School started again and drill team too . . . Practice, practice, practice, time to show the show . . . I went to most drill team shows, and watched my gal perform . . . I would see her smile, when she knew I was there . . . more dances came along and more time went by . . . Now we are at the time of graduation . . . this girl has grown in the years I've known her . . . but she is someone I love very much . . . You might ask, "Who is this girl?" well, I'll tell you . . . It's Kathy West . . . Kathy, I love you. — Your boy friend, ERIC Elois plugged the memory bank of the planetary computer into the ship's computer.

"look," he cried, "the Nestonians can be freed from their dreaded rings. And with a push of a button, I can teleport their long lost culture and history back to the Nestonians."

And so, after freeing the Nestonians from the evil power of Dolfus and returning their culture to them, Prince Lochar, Princess Ariel and Elois sped through space, anxious to return the peace and harmony, lost when the Logs were taken, to the great planet Miranda. FINIS

BLAST OFF!!

Dear Lou,
It has been a great year w/ you around. You made me laugh so much with all your dumb, stupid, funny, we so called incidences. 300 bad didn't have any classes together the second semester so I could laugh! But that's life. She biggest, dumbest, stupidest, idiotic inconsiderate mistake I probably won't see you Lakewood Hi. Now I decide to show your until a dance or you probably be never. You face 'Saffy will have to come over, at least and 'Saffy will have to come over, at least during the summer. We can also go to the beach. Well, I'd better be bugging me to this because these guys are asking me to and all because I'm just so beautiful!
(Ha-Ha). I'm really not conceited!
I'm going to miss you.
Bye, see ya soon,
Love,
Yeralynn

Forliffe", dumber
It was a wild year!
Believe me man I'll never get caught up with you again!!! If it wasn't for me you'd probably be dead
now. I'm your →  Well, keep in touch "Dumber" 925-2814. Maybe, just maybe I'll have you and Deale - mania over. Lots - a - luck. Love Nathalia 😊

Forliffe
It was a fun year having you at unscheduled and sewing 75 bad you won't be here next year, come and visit us any ways. Have fun with "Beano" but not to much just kidding
Love
Christo
Hope

Dear Dumbo,
 Well it's time for you to go out on your own. Don't kill herself.
 Have fun in the summer
 and you better call me.

589-9329 - I gave it to you again because you probably lost

it.
 Lorie

(can't hear) it's been nice knowing you you're this year. Good luck with the BOCO guys - maybe I'll see you next year
 at a football game between BOCO &
 Mater Dei. Bye -
 Dave you

Hi Lorie, Too bad we didn't have any classes together. Your just as strange as you were back at Cypress, if not more.
 Keep it up though, it's the only way to survive. Have fun at Lakewood. Keepin' touch.
 haw
 Marcia.
